Dear Jennifer:

Thank you for your letter of November 1. On behalf of the Orange County Council and the Boy Scouts of America, please accept our apologizes for this inadvertent use of your legally protected brand. As you know, many of our volunteers and non-lawyer employees do not recognize the limitation of the use of trademarks or intellectual property and we welcome the opportunity to not only correct, but to educate our leaders.

As I indicated on the voicemail, upon receipt we immediately took steps to inform and assist the local council in taking corrective action. A list of those to whom the flyer was sent is being compiled. All of them will be sent a message meeting the criteria outlined in your letter. Those responsible have also been informed that that your legally protected brands must not be used in any fashion without prior permission or in any manner that implies permission or affiliation with your organization.

Again, we apologize for this unfortunate error and thank you for bringing it to our attention in such a professional manner. If I do not have the opportunity before the onset of the holiday season, I wish you and your family enjoyable best wishes.

Very truly yours,

Steven P. McGowan
